How do we store energy in the 21st century? Let's see how we store energy in the 21st century. It is much harder to store renewable energy than fossil fuels. Non-renewable energy only needs some space to be stored, but green energy is stored in batteries, electric capacitors, magnetic storages that have a lower efficiency. Read our article about storing solar power for decades.

Is energy storage a precondition for large-scale integration and consumption? So to speak, energy storage is the precondition of large-scale integration and consumption of RES. However, China's energy storage industry is at the exploration stage and far from commercialization. This restricts the development of RES to certain extent. For this reason, this paper will concentrate on China's energy storage industry.
