Experiencing the Father's love isn't a one time event, it's being invited into a relational journey for the rest of our lives. We may have some significant encounters that root us, ground us, and transform the way we live. But in Ephesians 3:17, we read that we're being rooted and grounded in love; that's a continual process of establishing my

Love, specifically fatherly love, is one of the central threads of "Kabuliwallah." The narrator of the story has one child: a precocious five-year-old daughter named Mini who "can't stop talking for a minute" and frequently visits him in his study to talk and hide from her impatient mother. The narrator is touched by the liking that a local Kabuliwallah (fruit-seller) named
